

Catholic Action With Immigrant Children Community Vigil #2 Prayer

Gathering and Welcome

Welcome! We gather here today in the presence of our loving God to reflect on the lives of our brothers and sisters who have been detained by the U.S. government in their search for a better life, and especially to reflect on the children in detention, frightened, alone, hungry and cold. We come also to ask for the strength and courage of our God to act through us as we call for justice for these children and their families, for an end to child detention, and for a moral and humane response to all who come to our country seeking refuge. Finally we come here to ask for our merciful God to bestow wisdom on our lawmakers so that they do not shy away from their moral duty and show compassion to all, especially the most vulnerable, the children, in their work to create a just, fair and humane immigration policy. Through the power of our faith and in the compassion of Jesus Christ we ask that all human life be respected and that children seeking refuge be no longer detained, left alone and afraid, but rather that they feel the love, warmth and welcome of our great nation.

Opening Song: Suggested “All Are Welcome” (Marty Haugen) All Are Welcome

Let us build a house
where love can dwell
And all can safely live,
A place where
saints and children tell
How hearts learn to forgive.

Built of hopes and dreams and visions,
Rock of faith and vault of grace;
Here the love of Christ shall end divisions;
Let us build a house where prophets speak,

And words are strong and true,
Where all God's children dare to seek
To dream God's reign anew.

Here the cross shall stand as witness
And a symbol of God's grace;
Here as one we claim the faith of Jesus:
Let us build a house where love is found
In water, wine and wheat:
A banquet hall on holy ground,
Where peace and justice meet.

Here the love of God, through Jesus,
Is revealed in time and space;
As we share in Christ the feast that frees us:
All are welcome, all are welcome,
All are welcome in this place.

Readings

A 5-year-old from Honduras at a border patrol facility describes being taken from his father:

“The immigration agents separated me from my father right away. I was very frightened and scared. I cried. I have not seen my father again. I have been at this facility for several days. I have not been told how long I have to stay here. I am frightened, scared, and sad. It is cold at night when we sleep. I have shoes but no socks.”

Lord have mercy.

Response: Lord Have Mercy

Pope Francis in his message for the World Day of Migrants and Refugees says:

“It is not just about migrants: it is about our humanity. Compassion motivated the Good Samaritan – for the Jews, a foreigner – not to pass by. Compassion is a feeling that cannot be explained on a purely rational level. Compassion strikes the most sensitive chords of our humanity, releasing a vibrant urge to ‘be a neighbor’ to all those whom we see in difficulty. As Jesus himself teaches us, being compassionate means recognizing the suffering of the other and taking immediate action to soothe, heal and save. To be compassionate means to make room for that tenderness which today’s society so often asks us to repress. Opening ourselves to others does not lead to impoverishment, but rather enrichment, because it enables us to be more human: to recognize ourselves as participants in a greater collectivity and to understand our life as a gift for others; to see as the goal, not our own interests, but rather the good of humanity.”

Christ have mercy.

Response: Christ Have Mercy

The Gospel according to Mark says:

“They came to Capernaum and, once inside the house, he began to ask them, ‘What were you arguing about on the way?’ But they remained silent. They had been discussing among themselves on the way who was the greatest. Then he sat down, called the Twelve, and said to them, ‘If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all.’ Taking a child he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around the child he said to them, ‘Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me.’”

Lord have mercy.

Response: Lord Have Mercy

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm Response: Who Will Speak If We Don't? Who will speak so their voice will be heard?

(from Marty Haugen, "Who Will Speak If We Don't")

LORD, hear my prayer; in your faithfulness listen to my pleading; answer me in your righteousness.

Response: Who Will Speak If We Don't? Who will speak so their voice will be heard?

The enemy has pursued my soul; he has crushed my life to the ground. He has made me dwell in darkness like those long dead. My spirit is faint within me; my heart despairs.

Response: Who Will Speak If We Don't? Who will speak so their voice will be heard?

I stretch out my hands toward you, my soul to you like a parched land. Hasten to answer me, Lord; for my spirit fails me. Do not hide your face from me, lest I become like those descending to the pit.

Response: Who Will Speak If We Don't? Who will speak so their voice will be heard?

For your name's sake, Lord, give me life; in your righteousness lead my soul out of distress. In your mercy put an end to my foes; all those who are oppressing my soul, for I am your servant.

Response: Who Will Speak If We Don't? Who will speak so their voice will be heard?

Prayers of Petition

For all our migrant sisters and brothers who have died needlessly in our rivers and deserts and jails, we cry out,

Response: Stop the Inhumanity

For the children taken from their loved ones and trapped in our immigrant detention centers, in need of liberation, we cry out,

Response: Stop the Inhumanity

For those good-hearted people watching the suffering of immigrants and feeling powerless to act, that they might embrace their power and cry out,

Response: Stop the Inhumanity

For the president, his staff and Cabinet, for members of Congress and all who are complicit in inflicting suffering and harm on immigrants, asylum seekers, and refugees that they repent, end the torture and stop the violence, we cry out,

Response: Stop the Inhumanity

For all who denigrate and scapegoat immigrants and refugees for their own political gain, that they might see the profound harm they have done to the fabric of our nation and seek instead the common good, we cry out,

Response: Stop the Inhumanity

Closing Prayer

Invite each to share a prayer in their own words or use the following as a guide/suggestion:

Merciful God, through your grace, may we imitate your love and show true compassion by welcoming the immigrant and the refugee, and Inspired by the teaching of Jesus, may we greet each stranger as neighbor, receive and care for children as your own children, and may we live in the peace that comes from your love.

Closing Song:

Closing Song: Suggested:

We Are Called, David Haas

1. Come! live in the light!
Shine with the joy and the love of the Lord!
We are called to be light for the kingdom,
to live in the freedom of the city of God!

Refrain: We are called to act with justice.
We are called to love tenderly.
We are called to serve one another, to walk humbly with God.

2. Come! Open your heart!
Show your mercy to all those in fear!
We are called to be hope for the hopeless,
so all hatred and blindness will be no more!

3. Sing! Sing a new song!
Sing of that great day when all will be one!
God will reign and we'll walk with each other as sisters and brothers united in love!

FOR I WAS A STRANGER AND YOU
WELCOMED ME.
