NAC FOCUS AREA: US POLICIES THAT AFFECT OUR GOOD SHEPHERD MISSION IN OTHER COUNTRIES

ISSUE: ROOT CAUSES OF POVERTY AND VIOLENCE DRIVING MIGRATION

General Content: Letter to the Biden Administration drafted by a group of NGOs and faith groups with partners in the region, and focused on needed changes in US foreign policy toward Central America in order to address the structural roots of poverty and violence driving migration. Beyond Biden's emphasis on foreign assistance and private investment as primary ways to address root causes, this letter importantly calls on his Administration to examine US security assistance, US backing of governments w/egregious human rights records, and US support for extractive and exploitative development models.

Sent to: Biden Administration

Sponsored by: Sisters of Mercy of the Americas

NAC FOCUS AREA: VIOLENCE

ISSUE: FEDERAL DEATH PENALTY PROHIBITION ACT

General Content: Letter in support of Congresswoman Pressley and Senator Durbin who are seeking endorsement of their repeal bill that is the same as it was in the 116th Congress; the House and Senate bills are identical. While Espaillat and Pressley's bills have different language, they carry the same effect, repealing the federal death penalty for all death eligible offenses and prompting resentencing for those under sentence of death upon enactment. Calls for Amnesty to endorse both, and other organizations to do the same.

Sent to: Members of Congress

Sponsored by: Amnesty International

NAC FOCUS AREA: OTHER RELATED CONCERNS

ISSUE: WHITEHOUSE FAITH-BASED OFFICE

General Content: Because the restoration of a White House faith-based office is in question, a letter with signatures of faith-based organizations was sent to President Biden, asking for this office.

Sent to: President Biden

Sponsored by: CW Global

ISSUE: TAX ENFORCEMENT

General Content: Letter signed-on by a broad coalition of groups dedicated to social, racial, gender, and economic justice to urge the new administration and Congress to make strengthening Internal Revenue Service (IRS) tax enforcement a top priority in 2021 and beyond. Fair and adequate tax enforcement is critical for ensuring a tax system and an economy that works for ordinary Americans, not just the wealthy and powerful.

Sent to: Members of Congress

Sponsored by: Center of Budget and Policy Priorities

ISSUE: HUMAN RIGHTS

General Content: A. letter to the U.S. State Department asking the Biden Administration to take stronger action to support human rights defenders. This letter will help to demonstrate that there is widespread civil society interest in this issue, so that the U.S. government treats it as a priority. “As the Administration prepares to re-engage the U.S. government at the United Nations and other multilateral institutions, we encourage you to elevate the protection of human rights defenders as a U.S. foreign policy priority and commit to play a global leadership role on this issue.”

Sent to: letter to the U.S. State Department, CC: Senator Robert Menendez, Chairman, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Senator James Risch, Ranking Member, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Representative Gregory Meeks, Chairman, House Committee on Foreign Affairs, Representative Michael McCaul, Ranking Member, House Committee on Foreign Affairs
